

JEFF'S TEXTS / SUMMER 2010

Successful people finish strong .

Getting excited about the small stuff will get you to the big stuff.

Successful people stay hungry. Never be satisfied. Create greater goals.

Instincts are almost always better decisions than rational thought.

You are not a puppet in this show called life, you are the puppeteer. You have the power to make your life what you want it to be. Create your own reality.

Its going to happen anyway, why not make it positive.

The thoughts that go on in your brain all day are extremely powerful. Rid your mind of all the toxic and negative thoughts with positive self talk!

Commitment in the face of conflict yields character.

The way you view your relationship with your leaders will play a large role in determining how the people you lead view their relationship with you.

Most harm is not at all from ignorance, but from the knowledge of a great many things that are actually not true.

This week emphasize the importance of saying "this too shall pass" after success or failure.

Successful people don't have fewer problems or smaller problems, they develop themselves to the point where their obstacles are small relative to character.

Keep moving. Something amazing is always waiting down the line. If you slow down, you might miss it.

Successful people do not mix home with business. What happens at work stays there. Likewise the problems at home stay at home.

Remember enthusiasm is the cheapest energy source. Being excited about finding a pen or finishing small tasks can enlighten your mood and even enlighten others.

Most people assume they can't do something until they are told they can. Successful people assume they can until they are told they can't. Then they find a way anyways.

There's no limit to what you can accomplish if you don't care who gets the credit.

Successful people hold themselves accountable.

If you always do what you've always done, you'll always get what you've always gotten.

I will live today like others aren't willing to live so I can live tomorrow like others aren't able to live.

People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care.

Action precedes feeling. It is easier to act your way into proper thinking than it is to think your way into proper acting.

Whether you think you can or you can't, your right.

Ten most important words. If it is to be, it is up to me.

A reasonable person adapts himself to fit the world. An unreasonable person aparts the world to fit himself. All progress depends on unreasonable people.

Successful people compliment themselves, OUT LOUD, whether victory or defeat.

Successful people do not get down from failures, nor celebrate success. Whatever happens try saying "this too shall pass".

If you don't like how things look, change it. You're not a tree.

Weak is he who thinks of his next meal. Strong is he who thinks of his last meal in life.

Publicly give credit to those above, below, and around you. This builds trust and unity.

Lead by example. Most people will do half of what you do right and double what you do wrong.

The entire world can't convince you of something you don't already believe.

Most people don't plan to fail. They fail to plan.

Successful people are appreciative of their opportunities. Average people are resentful of their responsibilities.

The knowledge of some principles easily compensates for the ignorance of some facts.

Successful people express the best version of their selves.

Strong shall not labor for that is not what God asks. Strong will simply stay busy to avoid feelings of sadness.

All dreams are worthless without action.

Strong is he who is excited for the future. Weak is he who fears the past.

Successful people think differently. It isn't natural. If it were, most people would be successful.

You make a living from what you get. You make a life from what you give.

Successful people always have a sense of urgency.

Successful people see what can become. All gardens would fail if the planter could only see the seed.

There are two types of people in the world. One finds excuses. The other finds a way.

Leaders use their accomplishments not to intimidate but to inspire.

You can't teach what you don't know. And you can't lead where you won't go.

Successful people are the cause of their results. Average people are the results of their excuses.

It's not important to be right. What's important is to be for what's right.

Weak is he who lets thoughts control actions. Strong is he who forces his actions to control his thoughts.

By definition, most people are average. Successful people do things average people wouldn't do.

Average people celebrate self accomplishments. Successful people celebrate accomplishments of those around them.

Success is never owned, it's rented. And the rent is due every day.
